DATED: 26.4.2006

Between:

… Petitioner

and

… Respondents

HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.NO.8767 OF 2006

ORAL ORDER:

The writ petition is misconceived. The learned counsel for the petitioner also now realizes that, but has nevertheless filed this writ petition.

The 1st respondent is the petitioner's wife. According to the writ petitioner, they are blessed with a female child who is now 10 years old. The 1st respondent has left the company of the petitioner along with the daughter. Seeking custody of the child and alleging illegal appropriation of the child by the 1st respondent, the petitioner herein earlier filed W.P.No.4071 of 2006. This writ petition was summarily dismissed by a Division Bench of this court on 3.3.2006. Thereafter, the petitioner approached the Civil Court, Mahabubnagar seeking custody of the child. Proceedings are said to be pending before the said court.

While so, the petitioner contends, his mother fell ill and desired to see his daughter. The 1st respondent is not permitting her mother-in-law to see the grand child. This is a framework of the writ petition.

The petitioner made a representation in this behalf to the 2nd respondent to direct the 3rd respondent to produce the child so that the petitioner's mother may see the child. Alleging inaction on the part of the 2nd respondent and the 3rd respondent, the writ petition is filed. The police are neither authorized or obligated to ensure family reunions.

No other comment is warranted. The writ petition is fundamentally misconceived and is dismissed at the stage of admission. There shall be no order as to costs.
